

The National Honor Society held a collection of toiletries to aid Bergen County Casa. Bergen County Casa assists children in foster homes and each year they host a program to teach teens about life after they age out of the foster program. Teen who participate in the event, Embracing Independence Day, receive a duffle bag with essential items. BHS was able to donate 250 items for their event.

